Sec. 17.58.1. - Unlawful parking of trailers, mobile homes, recreational vehicles, trucks and buses.

(a) Street parking. No person shall park or stand or permit to remain for a longer period than twelve hours on any street or highway or public alley or on a parkway area between curb and sidewalk any of the following vehicles, all as defined in the California Vehicle Code, unless such person has a written authorization from the chief of police or his delegate:

1. Any trailer (as defined by the California Vehicle Code), whether attached to another vehicle or separate and regardless of the presence or absence of any cargo;
2. Semitrailer;
3. Mobile home;
4. Bus (as defined in the California Vehicle Code);
5. Any recreational vehicle or temporary recreational vehicle.

"Recreational vehicle" means:

- A. "Recreational vehicle." A motor home, slide-in camper, travel trailer, with or without motive power, designed for human habitation for recreational or emergency occupancy.
- B. "Camping trailer." A vehicular portable unit mounted on wheels and constructed with collapsible partial sidewalls which fold for towing by another vehicle and unfold at the campsite and designed for human habitation for recreational or emergency occupancy.
- C. "Motor home." A vehicular unit built on or permanently attached to a self-propelled motor vehicle chassis, chassis cab or van, which becomes an integral part of the completed vehicle, designed for human habitation for recreational or emergency occupancy.
- D. "Slide-in camper." A portable unit, consisting of a roof, floor and sides, designed to be loaded onto and unloaded from the bed of a pickup truck, and designed for human habitation for recreational or emergency occupancy and shall include a truck camper.
- E. "Travel trailer." A portable unit, mounted on wheels, of such a size and weight as not to require special highway movement permits when drawn by a motor vehicle and for human habitation for recreational or emergency occupancy.

"Temporary recreational vehicle" means:

Any motor vehicle altered and equipped for sleeping or human habitation.

6. Any vehicle which is capable of greater than one thousand five hundred pounds (three-quarter-ton) cargo capacity.

(b) Exceptions. This section shall not apply to commercial vehicles, (established by a current registration with the state Department of (Motor Vehicles), semitrailers or buses when authorized pursuant to a specific provision of chapter 17 of this Code.

(c) Written authorization. The chief of police or his or her designee may issue written authorization for parking in excess of the time limits set forth herein where he or she determines it is consistent with the intent and purpose of this chapter and otherwise meets the requirements of applicable law.

(d) Penalty/remedy for violation. In addition to any other remedy provided for by law, vehicles parked in violation of this ordinance may be towed in accordance with California Vehicle Code sections 22652.6 and 22669.

(Ord. No. 780 §1, 1984).
